Anything else you'd like to tell us about your work?

In order for us to know who's using the database for what purposes, and in order to ensure that the GWD is meeting the needs of its user base, we ask that you complete a brief report of the way(s) in which you used the GWD for your work when you renew your free access annually.

The GWD is a collaborative non commercial, non profit project. It depends on the goodwill and contributions of its users and developers. If you've used the GWD to produce some research that you'd like to share with us, if you'd like to contribute a resource to a GWD module, or if you'd like to put a citation for your GWD-based work into the library, please let us know at gwd@yorku.ca

I acknowledge that I have read and understand the terms and conditions under which the Statistics Canada data products can be made available to me and that I will abide by them. I also agree that in order to renew my free access annually, I will report briefly to the GWD about how I used the database as part of research and/or teaching.

STATISTICS CANADA DATA PRODUCTS SHARING LICENCE

Dear applicant:

This Letter of Agreement authorizes you to access Statistics Canada data products (i.e. data tables in Beyond 20/20) available on the Gender & Work Database.

As a user, you agree that you are informed of the conditions of use of the data products.

You are authorized to view and download the data products and/or any accompanying documentation for the purposes of noncommercial research and/or teaching, in accordance with the following conditions:

- It is your responsibility to ensure the proper installation of the data products and to ensure that this utilization conforms to the terms of the "CONSORTIUM END-USE LICENCE AGREEMENT" (page 5). Statistics Canada is responsible only for delivery of the original products in good working order to York University.
- TERMINATION:
 - York University will terminate the authorization to use the data products of any user that is found to be in violation of any term of the "CONSORTIUM END-USE LICENCE AGREEMENT".
 - In the event of termination, you must erase all copies of the data products from workstations, micro-computers or terminals of your organization and certify this removal in writing to York University. York University in turn shall advise Statistics Canada that the organization in default is no longer authorized to use or otherwise have access to the data products.

For further information from Statistics Canada, please contact:

CONSORTIUM END-USE LICENCE AGREEMENT

This agreement sets out the conditions under which you can use the data products available on the GWD, namely, the data tables available in Beyond 20/20 in the statistics section of the database.

COPYRIGHT

The Government of Canada (Statistics Canada) is the owner or a licensee of all intellectual property rights (including copyright) in and to the data products. As a user of these data products, you have been granted a non-exclusive, non-assignable and non-transferable licence to use the data products subject to the terms below. This licence is not a sale of any or all of the rights of the owner(s).

TERMS OF USE

1. The licensee shall not lend, rent, lease, sub-license, transfer or sell any part of the data products nor any right granted under this agreement to any person or to any other organization.
2. The licensee shall not disassemble, decompile or in any way attempt to reverse engineer any software provided as part of the data products.
3. The licensee shall not use any part of the data products to develop or derive any other data product or data service for distribution or commercial sale.
4. The licensee is granted reasonable rights of use of the content of the data products only for personal or public policy research, as well as for educational purposes. This permission includes the use of the content in analyses and the reporting of results and conclusions, including the citation of limited amounts of supporting data extracted from the data products in such documents. In such cases, the source of the data must be acknowledged in all such documents and communications by using the citation guide provided on the GWD in the section entitled, "Apply for Statistics Access".
5. The licensee shall obtain approval from Statistics Canada before publishing any significant volumes of material extracted from the data products in any medium.
6. Any violation of this licence renders it void and of no effect. This agreement will terminate automatically without notice if the licensee fails to comply with any term of this agreement. In the event of termination, the licensee must immediately return the data products to Statistics Canada or destroy it and certify this destruction in writing to Statistics Canada.

WARRANTIES AND DISCLAIMERS

Statistics Canada provides the data products 'as-is,' and makes no warranty, either express or implied, including but not limited to, warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose. In no event will Statistics Canada be liable for any direct, special, indirect, consequential or other damages however caused.

ACCEPTANCE OF TERMS

It is YOUR RESPONSIBILITY to ensure that your use of the data products complies with these terms and to seek prior written permission from Statistics Canada for any uses not permitted or not specified in this agreement. Any infringement of Statistics Canada's rights may result in legal action.

ANY USE WHATSOEVER OF THIS DATA PRODUCT SHALL CONSTITUTE YOUR ACCEPTANCE OF THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT. ANY VIOLATION OF THESE TERMS MAY RESULT IN TERMINATION OF ACCESS.
